Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Can we rewind to a simpler time? A time without the world of Facebook. A place where life was small, yet remembered full. A place roomy enough for more moments to be made with family. More space and time available to truly be present enough to notice them, to treasure them. Can we let go of our small, hand-held intruder and robber of simplicity, our phones? As with them, the Facebook app. The need to know all and the urge to let all be known by a too-big circle of friends on Facebook. Can this too-big world be made small again? Can we return to what once was? A time when lunch with your children was lunch with your children. Not them looking at you, with eyes begging to be noticed, over the back of that too familiar, unwelcomed phone. Can a date between you and your spouse go back to being intimate? Between two lovers and best friends, without the world needing to be in on it? To see a picture for its proof? Yes, let s go back, if only briefly, to that world of sweet simplicity. Let me take you on the break which was mine. A cool, soothing, refreshing drink to this parched and withered soul. Allow me to show you how life can become big when allowing small to fill up your heart. Allowing God to lavish you with signs of His unending LOVE, not their frivolous, and never satisfying enough likes. A beautiful, invigorating, and life-giving breath of fresh air to spiritual lungs deprived of the rich oxygen only He gives! Go ahead, let the world run ahead of you, without your needing to catch...
