Then lam ready but yet I cannot comprehend this singular mystery, said the young man. Hasten with me, both of ye, to a place of safety, and all shall be explained. Saying this, the governor deposited the slip of parchment on a table, so that the priest might find it, and then hastening to the secret panel he re-opened it and led the way to the subterranean passage. The de Gorges followed him without hesitation and the secret door was closed again, and the prison of the captives was tenantless. Now for the priest once more. After having discovered the mysterious disappearance of Don Antonio and lady Elisa, and having satisfied himself of the fncet that the French captives were still safe, he hurried forth in search of Moreno, to confer with him. Two important captives have escaped...
