SIMON SCHUSTER, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. With allegations of a fix at the church bake-off, the arrival of a handsome and single preacher, and the antics of the town's sleazy mayor, reporter Susan Collins's plate is full, if unexciting. So when the local Murder Mystery Club, a trio of octogenarians from the local assisted living centre, appears at her desk to resurrect a decades-old missing persons case, Susan is intrigued. The newspaper's hunky CFO, Mark Tremayne, wants Susan to focus on stories that sell ads to stop the haemorrhaging of the small-town paper, but that doesn't sit well with the spunky redheaded reporter. As Susan investigates the mystery and fights Mark's plans for the paper, sparks fly between them. Can her Lois Lane aspirations and his seriously sexy Clark Kent personality team up for a Superman-worthy ending? Filled with humour, fast-paced storytelling, and lovable heroines, Karen Hawkins's story will delight fans of Jennifer Crusie.
