By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Oriental Herald, and Colonial Review, Vol. 1: January to April, 1824 Anticipating the desire of those for whom this Work is intended in India, to possess a Report of the most interesting particulazs relative to Eastern Literature and Discovery that have transpired from the commencement of the past year, since which Indian Editors have been no longer at liberty to republish, even from the English papers, any thing the Indian Government chose to prohibit - such a Report has been prepared. The same date will be taken, as marking the close of Lord Hastings's administration in India, for the period of commencement in arranging the intelligence from that country; as well as from other parts of our colonial possessions, which will give a uniformity to the whole. These several claims, incidental to the First Number of a Publication commenced under such peculiar circumstances as the present, have occupied space that in future Numbers will not be required for such a purpose. Not to push this beyond its proper limit, however, the Official Correspondence on the...
