Indian Head Books, 1976. Hard Cover. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: Near Fine. A very nice copy. Bottom edge of jacket front lightly rubbed, ink name to bottom edge of jacket front. 1976 Hard Cover. We have more books available by this author. 311 pp. In a poignant drama of heroism, treachery and violence, John Edwards Weems eloquently recounts yet another chapter of US history: the closing decades of the nineteenth century which marked the last of the Indian wars, those bloody years when Western expansion changed forever the face of the American continent; when railroads and 'civilization' brought about the end of the American Indian's way of life, which over the centuries had evolved into one of complete harmony with the native land; when millions of free-ranging buffalo were exterminated; when the white domination of America was finally achieved at a cost of human lives and natural resources that was to leave permanent scars.
