iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.God: An Authorized Biography Pilgrim, Playboy Bunny and card carrying member of the Me Generation Barbara Camp invites you to explore the New Old Testament in what can easily be referred to as the right brain Bible. With a quirky blend of wit and insight she mirrors the bulletproof stories of the epic Old Testament with everyman applications to modern life-from the deeply personal to the culturally historical. God's iridescent light is refracted through a highly original prism in the process. In an era of unprecedented distraction Camp invites you to discover that God writes the best fiction, known as non-fiction. From Spartacus to Solzhenitsyn to Sammy Sosa-and everything in between-she's shaken and stirred a festive cocktail of narrative confetti so entertaining and distinctive in style it will offer new insights to the Bible scholar, the spiritually curious, and even the skeptic. On the Seventh Day God Rested is both a sentimentally reverent divine portrait and an inspirational connect the dots, think outside the Biblical box thought-provoking journey. On this road less traveled -with a foreword by C.S.I.'s William Petersen-you'll discover timeless truth made modern, and that God's fingerprints have been on your map all along.
