They account for it by saying that their prophet recorded his revelations just as they were brought to him by the angel Gabriel, that they were imparted to him at different times, during the course of twenty three years; and that in the intervals, the Almighty so frequently changed his mind, that one revelation contradicts another. This convenient story is perfectly satisfactory to Mussehnenn. But all Christendom consider it sufficient grounds for pronouncing their prophet, before heaven and earth, a convicted imposter. It is mortifying to be told that in the Christian church there are thousands, including some of our most distinguished theologians, who give no better account of the word of God. They assert that principles and practices are inculcated in the old Testament which are at war with the morality of the new. They contend, particularly, that the law of Moses licensed a system of servitude opposed to the requirements of the moral law, and inconsistent with the heavenly spirit of the Gospel. And they apologise for it by saying that Moses and the Apostles were inspired under different dispensations!! It was the utterance of a sentiment not more revolting to a pious mind, which moved Hezekiah to send to Isaiah the son of Amos, a deputation of the Elders of Israel clothed in sackcloth, saying this is a day of trouble and of rebuke and of blasphemy. Apart from all concern for the enslaved African, the emancipation of our churches from the...
