Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Hairballs in the Morning 2 is a comprehensive, easy to read guide to topics such as when to have more than one cat per household, the different cat personalities and how they will influence your household, pros and cons of purchasing versus adopting your new cat. In addition, more perplexing subjects, how to handle the not so cat loving family members or friends coming for a visit. Also discussed are important ideas for increasing your pet's odds of survival during and after a disaster, or coping with a dramatic change in your circumstances. The necessary and tough choices surrounding your pet's death, are addressed in a straight forward yet loving way. There are chapters outlining tips and techniques for better management of household chores relating to cat ownership. No stage of a cat's life is lacking for good commonsense advice and encouragement for its owner. Lesley F. Bistline was the owner of an award winning cattery for over twenty-six years. Her cats achieved numerous honors in their show careers, including regional and national awards. During that time she, as a breeder, earned designations of Cattery of Excellence from the cat organization, C.F.A. as well as Outstanding Cattery from another cat organization, T.I.C.A. To achieve these standings, a cattery must be inspected once a year by a licensed veterinarian and pass strict standards. She has shared her extensive knowledge of all cat related issues in this book, providing her unique perspective on such varied topics as; adopting versus purchasing a cat, personality differences among cats and how to work with each type of personality, care and upkeep of your cat included household as well as many other...
