J., On Sabbath Morning and Afternoon, Dec; 18, 1853 It is due to the Author to say, that the following Discourse was one of his ordinary pulpit preparations, and is indebted for any Special interest it may have or claim to publication, to the occasion, and the history which it contains. Faulty as he knows it to be as a composition, it could not be materially changed without recasting it entire, and is therefore published just as it was delivered, adding a few notes to supply in part its defects, and amplifying one or two thoughts somewhat. As some exception was taken to the language used on a point or two, in giving it a more public and permanent form, such language has been chosen as he thinks can justly offend no one, while it retains the essential facts of impartial history. Greatly interested and instructed himself by the history of God s dealings...
