Chipmunka Publishing, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 126 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .by Dolly Sen ISBN: 978 1 905610 94 5 Published: 2006 Pages: 183 Description About the Author Author, poet and activist Dolly Sen lives in Streatham, South London. Born in 1970, she had her first psychotic experience aged 14 which lead her to leave school. After year of mental illness, probably bought on by an abusive childhood, Dolly decided she should write about her experiences. She was inspired to write her own story after reading Jason Pegler s autobiography A Can of Madness . She has since written five books, become a successful performance poet who has toured throughout Europe and has set up two charities. Book Extract Writing has always helped me. I found it when I was 22 and it has kept me alive since then. During my worst depressions, writing gave me a reason to wake up in the morning. Would I still have carried on writing if I never was published? Of course I would. One of my favourite writers, Charles Bukowski, said of writing: It is the last expectation, the last explanation, that s what writing is . A plain piece of paper won t judge you, criticize you. And above all it won t lie to you. If you can t say what needs to be said face to face, write it down. People with mental health problems who are able should think about either writing their story or at least telling it. Their lives shouldn t be what they think are dirty secrets they have to hide. One woman at one of my book signings shook her head sadly and said, I can t, it s too painful. And besides,...
