Have you ever asked yourself, How can I stand out in my career? This question is treated as one of the great mysteries of life, right alongside whether or not BigFoot is real and why we can't use electronic devices on airplanes. In Stand Out, best-selling author Jordan Raynor uses his comical and casual writing style to argue that the answer to this question is ridiculously simple: be kind and be competent. As Raynor tells young employees at his companies, You can't imagine how low the bar is for you to be successful in this world. In the few pages of Stand Out, Raynor shares: The three basic principles that, when mastered, will allow anyone to stand out in their career What he and other employers look for when hiring interns and entry-level employees How to get your email to Inbox Zero every day How to ensure you never drop a ball How to set big goals, break them into smaller projects, and achieve your desired outcomes As a free bonus to readers of Stand Out, Raynor has even included a free downloadable summary of the best-selling time management book Getting Things Done along with tips on how to implement the GTD process to manage your tasks. Ready to stand out in your career? Read this book today!.
