

The 20th Quarter-Annual Horse Contest: A Play in Two Acts

By G Michael Blahnik

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The 20th Quarter-Annual Horse Contest is a comedy about two thirty-something men (Jim Lucas and Ron Treland) in the 80 s who come together periodically to deepen their long-term friendship through the playing of a basketball game called HORSE. They have developed their own peculiar way of playing the game, where the object of the game is superseded by the creativity of their playing styles and shot selections. It is more of a creative ritual than a competitive game. The game is continuously interrupted (sometimes in real time, mostly not) by Ron s parents, Jim and Ron s high school basketball coach, Jim s college basketball coach, and Jim and Ron s wives. The interruptions constitute the evolution of the relationships between Ron, his parents, and his wife, and between Jim, his old coaches and his wife. Ron is caught in his father s business and under the command of his father s crusty personality, whereas Jim is caught in his past high school glories and college failures. Jim s wife, Lynne, is relatively economically and emotionally stable,...
