I was only a little baby song-sparrow, and from the moment I came out of my shell everybody knew there was something the matter with me. I dont know what it could have been, for my brother and sister were well and strong. Perhaps I was out of the first egg that was laid, and a severe spell of cold had come and partially frozen me; or a storm had shaken the bough in which our nest was, so that I was partly addled. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
