Blameless so, Thou needs must own, for they were trained by thee, And only from thy teaching, further given, Can ever venture the ambitious flight Thy wishes urge. Forgive me, if I seem To answer lightly. All my heart responds, And all its loyalty pays reverent heed. But for a shepherd s bride have I been schooled; To this my wishes and my hopes have led; And when, instead, there opens to my view, All unprepared--as if to twilight shade At once should come the dazzling light of noon--A place beside the greatest of earth s kings, Where I must match the glory of his state, . Must feel and do and be what it requires, Wielding the influence...
