JUDGING MEDICINE

Book Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Springer, Berlin | In the early 1970s, well before the field of bioethics had established itself in medicine or anywhere else, the Hastings Center organized a small meeting of law school professors. The question we put to them was: what could or should be done to stimulate legal interest in the field? The answer we got was a wise one. We should do nothing to force-feed the interest. It should simply be allowed to develop on its...
