Excerpt from The Miracles of Prayer: A Sermon Preached Before the University, in the Cathedral Church of Christ, in Oxford, on Septuagesima Sunday, 1866 First then, in effect, God does through man s acts become other to him than He was before. The voice of conscience echoes the voice of God s law, that we sinners, while we remain sinners, are the objects of God s displeasure. Conscience cries aloud, enforces it she reiterates it, when silenced; she awakens in agony, when she has been stupefied; and, even when deadened and buried under accumulated sin, she lives anew by a spiritual resurrection. When our Lord s voice of power, Lazarus come forth, has penetrated the dead soul, and with penitence for its own ingratitude, has infused love for its Redeemer, and He, by Himself or by His minister, has said, Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee, the soul knows and feels that its relation to God and God s relation to it are changed.
