

Whispers in Autumn

By M. Jean Pike

Black Lyon Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 156 pages. To hear love whispering, they had to listen with their hearts. Paranormal Studies expert Dove Denning came to Shadow Lake to attend her friend Emmas wedding. After helping the police with a brutal murder investigation, the solitude and tranquility of the lake are just what Dove needs to ease her spiritbut the spirits that whisper to her arent so at ease. Struggling over the death of his daughter, Dusty is a man who has come from dark places in search of peace. As his heart turns toward Dove, the ghosts from his past turn out to be more than just figures of speech. Together, Dusty and Dove find the power of redemption, of safety from a growing danger of love on the lake. Reviews and Other Information: Ms. Pikes powerful characterizations, vivid imagery, and fast pace capture the reader from the first sentence and holds them until the last, making WHISPERS IN AUTUMN a true winner. This is not a cookie cutter romance; Ms. Pikes attention to detail and unique storytelling ability sets this one apart. The suspense is nail-biting in intensity at times. The love scenes are beautifully done without being...
