Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from History of Taxation, Vol. 1: In Iowa The writing of a history of taxation in Iowa is not an easy task; indeed, it involves many difficult problems both of research and of presentation. From beginning to end the scientific investigator is really embarrassed by a superabundance of materials. The statute books of the Territory and State, the journals of the legislature, the messages of Governors, the reports of Auditors and Treasurers, the reports of special commissions, the decisions of courts, the financial reports of counties, special and miscellaneous public documents, and tons of newspapers yield a richness of data that is inviting and at the same time appalling. The facts and statistics of industrial and economic developments, covering nearly three quarters of a century, are equally abundant and far more difficult to obtain. The problems of handling such masses of detailed information fully, accurately, and without confusion can only be appreciated by those who have successfully carried to completion similar investigations. But the problems of historical research are not the only difficulties which confront the writer of such a history of taxation as has been produced by Professor Brindley.
