Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1857 Excerpt: .of Scripture, in which the writer of the Book of Jor says that the Almighty mads a way for the lightning of the thunder. A calm and confiding state of mind during terrific thunder-storms is exceedingly requisite, and a humble trnsting in that protection which the great Creator extends over all the work of his hands. It will afford me gratification to be of service to any and every body, and any informntion that may be needed as to particular cases will be answered with all convenient dispatteh, on application by letter by mail or otherwise. I can not close this paper, long as it is, withont adding something in relation to the best mode of resnscitating persons struck down by lightning. Cold water should be freely nsed, and the body first sprinkled with cold water, and then drenched with water, and this should be continued for honrs, or until animation is restored, and if that fail, add salt to the water and continne the drenching. I have the record of a person being resnscitated after five honrs drenching with cold water. E. MEEIAM. New York, November, 1856. TABLE Of fhc periods when the Hudson riever Opened and Closed at Albany, as far as the same can be ascertained without a more particular examination of different records, including these contained in the Report of the Regents of the ITnieersitg, which at present I haee not the leisure to make. River closed or obstructed by Ice. Feb....
