In response to his illness Susan journaled, corresponded with friends and wrote poetry. Here she puts this experience into a story for each of us-weaving the lessons of golf through the lessons of life. Susan s father, Ray Lebel, played jazz horn, completed a career as an oral surgeon and is a golf champion-winner of Maine State Amateur six times, holding the national record for the most club wins, and listed in Sports Illustrated as one of Maine s top athletes. His life lessons came to him through golf and he imparted those lessons to his children. Here his eldest shares them with you. About the Author: Susan Lebel Young, psychotherapist in private practice and teacher of stress reduction, yoga and meditation, has been writing most of her life. She is a frequent contributor to the Reflections column in the Portland Press Herald. Lessons is her first book. She received a B.A. from Middlebury College. After teaching elementary and adult education for 10 years, she completed masters degrees in counseling and education.
