Excerpt from Farm Population and Rural Life Activities, 1941, Vol. 15: Issued Quarterly by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C The Subcommittee on Farm Labor is to determine the extent and kind of farm labor shortages reported, or anticipated, and determine to what extent any prospective shortage is (a) an apparent shortage that may be remedied by reasonable adjustments in living and working conditions and in wage rates; (b) a seasonal shortage that may be adjusted by appropriate organization of local labor supplies; or (c) a shortage of such extent and kind as to require the movement of labor from areas where there is a surplus. These Labor Subcommittees are to develop plans for dealing with the problems of farm labor shortages on the State and local levels and to coordinate the necessary action to this end.
