Excerpt from Columbia Records: June No other musician has so translated simple gypsy melodies into such deep haunting such tempestuous tumults of rhythm. Before a detailed de scription of this great orchestral transcription. Special attention is called to the phenomenal clarionet work throughout played by Thomas H Prince s clarionetist. Formerly a world-toured soloist with Sousa s Band and a noted master of this brilliant instrument. Part I (based on an old Hungarian Folk Love Song.) All love s varied emotions are spelled in the muted mystery of the opening bars. Music beaten down. Down lower and lower by mighty brass chords; then the waltening orchestra, the questioning expectancy of the brilliant clario net cadenza; the flutter and palpitation of strings staccato: final joy of life. Thewild speed of the dance and the first theme ends as it began. An echo in a vast underground cavern of sound. Part II. (based on a Hungarian czarda hungarian does not express in song, he tells in the dance. The gypsy czardas gave to Liszt themes which he turned into Bachanalian riots of Flung out by...
