Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 66: December 1, 1904 Elders Isaac A. Smoot and James J. Squires, writing from Crewe, under date of November 1st, 1904, tell of their finding a sister who had not seen nor heard an Elder for sixteen years. They write: This sister has great faith. On the occasion of Elders Smith and Smoot's first visit she had been suffering for a long time from neuralgia, so much that she could not rest at night. When the Elders had got fairly rested, she told them how she had suffered, and then requested them to lay hands on her that she might receive relief. She remembered that prominent feature of our faith since a girl. They complied with her request, with the result that she received instant and permanent relief. The Juvenile Instructor of October 15th, 1904, prints a letter from President German E. Ellsworth written from Chicago, u.s.a. In which he says.
