There are several lines per frame for notes. Planning the filming of the promotional film. Remember to make notations on what is happening in the scene and any observations you may think. Background, setting, environment.whatever you call it, it is the silent character in the visual story in the scenes for films, and a dynamic and compelling setting can define and hone the action and drama of your story. If you re in the habit of creating disembodied characters or adding backgrounds as an afterthought, Set the Action! will help you understand and utilize the importance of the setting in your narrative. Understand perspective, blocking, and color-and focus your narrative by establishing and designing your setting to interact with films of any kind, commercials, animations, TV programs or visual storytelling. This journal is a storyboarding essential.
