Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . We all go through many roller coasters in life. God kept convicting me to write a book after I lost Bryan, my husband of 20 years, father of my children in a tragic car wreck 2/2/13. I kept thinking arguing with God, What am I going to write about? What could I possibly teach people? So many people I looked up to, in my business my personal life, that I thought were much more qualified than me. But, anyone who knows, when God convicts you on something, you will not win if you choose to not do it, or try not to!:) Bryan used to always say, I want to see you smile. I remember thinking one day, while I was crying, him looking down from Heaven saying this exact thing to me. The thought in my head, He would not want me to be like this, I am not being a good example to my children, nor others around me that might possibly look up to me. A lightbulb, a God moment - if you will - You can smile, even through your tears. I thought that was going to be the title of my book. So i started writing, thinking about chapters, etc. Through much procrastination, still yet arguing with God that there are many books out there many others way more capable than me, over the next couple years, this word, this concept, kept popping into my head, choices. We all have a choice to what we do in life, what we think, what we put in our mouths, what we say to ourself to others, how we react-so many choices-We All Have Choices, we can choose...
