They are full of fun and mischief and this book will tell you all about their adventures with their parents Bruce and Emma. Sophie and Kate are very clever for their age and both girls like reading, writing and arithmetic. Kate is the more daredevil of the two and loves climbing and jumping off furniture and swings and slides in the playground, Sophie is the more creative one. She loves to paint, draw and write stories. Like most young children they have grandparents. Granddad Colin is a clever man. Grandma Moira says we will believe that when we see it - we think she knows Granddad very well.
