Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Teaching the Compassionate Rebel Revolution is a companion to The Compassionate Rebel Revolution by Burt Berlowe. This book directly addresses fifteen of his collected stories with activities for the classroom and references to models in conflict resolution theory. Many of the concepts and activities relate to other stories in the original book, and to stories from conflict situations across the globe. Beyond its role as a companion text, Teaching the Compassionate Rebel Revolution is filled with activities appropriate for teaching conflict resolution and peace education. If you are a classroom teacher, community educator, youth group leader, campus minister, university educator, or trainer in conflict resolution, you will appreciate this useful guide to engaging activities and coherent concepts.
