Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Prussian Schools Through American Eyes, 1891: A Report to the New York State Department of Public Instruction This brief account of the Prussian elementary school system was prepared at the request of the Honorable Andrew S. Draper, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of New York, and appears in his thirty-seventh annual report, transmitted to the Legislature January 6, 1891. The following extract from Superintendent Draper's report explains itself: - In 1867 Superintendent Victor M. Rice presented to the Legislature a special and elaborate report, attempting to set forth the educational conditions of all the enlightened nations of the world. The little volume was published by the State, but the edition was so limited that it is now almost unknown. It enabled the educators of the State to compare their own with other educational systems, and it was likewise prolific of suggestions. Its value, however, was impaired by reason of the fact that the information it contained was derived from the reports of foreign educational or other officers, or from encyclopaedias. To make them of the greatest value to us, foreign school systems must be seen through American eyes, and must be described by an intelligent friend of our school system, who is so anxious for its improvement that he is willing to seize upon any thing which will improve it no matter where he may find it, and who yet has the power of discriminating sufficiently to enable him to see not only what is good, but to determine what is practicable and advisable in this country. I have been desirous of presenting to the educators of this State something of this...
