CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. Marie Gallicher (illustrator). This item is printed on demand. 86 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. After the first fifty years of Eric Porters life available on Amazon in volume 1, here are the mature years: 1979-1995 with more drawings and photographs in addition. Eric Porter was one of the greatest actors of the British classical theatre in the 50s and 60s who became a worldwide famous TV actor after his portrayal of Soames Forsyte main character of the series The Forsyte Saga in 1967 on BBC 2. This versatile actor loved playing po-faced characters but he was far from them in real life. Helen Monk had the privilege to enter his inner circle of friends and thanks to her we discover another man, a man with simple joys and a real intellectual as well. Far from the typical biography kind that Eric Porter himself didnt like, she doesnt tell us about his path from shadow to light but how he managed this difficult balance between Porter the actor and Eric the man. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
