

The Delight of Vrindavana (Paperback)

By Krishna's Mercy

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Did Krishna really descend to earth? How do we know that He is not just an elevated yogi as opposed to the Supreme Lord Himself? Did He really hold up a massive hill with His finger? Did He really kill so many nefarious characters while in the form of a small child? If so, what was the purpose to His advent? When and where does He make His appearances? If God can incarnate in human form, does that mean that we are all incarnations of God? Can we perform the same miracles? Why did Krishna play like an ordinary child in Vrindavana? What is so special about Vrindavana? The Delight of Vrindavana is a collection of nineteen essays that discuss these issues and more through delving into many of Shri Krishna's most famous pastimes and understanding them within the context of the ancient teachings of the Vedas and their foremost authorities.
