GHETTO FLOWERS: THE EARLY YEARS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ghetto Flowers The Early Years is the first installment of three novels (although each novel is a complete story). It is an entertaining story of inner city youth coming of age in the red brick row homes, asphalt and concrete jungle of South Philadelphia. The narrow streets, homes, and alleys form a complex, cultural maze of neighborhoods for kids to utilize in their struggle to survive. Ghetto Flowers illuminates the reality of the many challenges inner city youth face in their attempt to grow beyond cultural circumstances that threaten to hinder the discovery and unfolding of their innate potential. The Ghetto Flowers will amaze you with their ingenious resourcefulness, innocence, humor, and penchant for mischief. They possess delightful personalities and an insatiable hunger for adventure. The innocence of their youth commingles with the harsh and bizarre realities of the educational, religious and civil institutions that attempt to shape their lives, and they use their intelligence to develop street smarts to navigate their way through the transition from childhood into adolescence. Each chapter is a short story collectively woven into a novel and written so that the reader can appreciate the challenge of growing up with unusual educational and cultural influences in what many would consider a world of deprivation. These inner city youth experience their neighborhood as an endless opportunity to create mischievous fun. In the process they develop a cohesive tribal community of friendships that serve to protect and guide them through many fascinating trials and tribulations. Join the Ghetto Flowers as they learn to blossom and not wither even though their roots are deeply grounded in the seemingly infertile concrete and asphalt streets. Their minds learn to reach...
