Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.3in.Focusing on issues common to men today, and unique in its personal, intimate approach to maleness, Man to Man: Poems for Men is a collection of free style poems aimed at both the intellect and the buried emotions of the modern male. Based on the authors life experiences, it explores and redefines the meaning of masculinity and the demanding roles confronting men in todays world. In our society, masculinity and poetry do not often go together; the author, through this book, seeks to change that. Appealing to women as well as to men, Man to Man: Poems for Men is more than a book of free-standing, independent poems. Collectively, the poems create an autobiography of sorts, covering the experiences and expectations encountered by men throughout their lives. At the same time, topics ranging from parenting and relationships to politics and religion make this an Issues book that the author hopes will encourage private and public discussion of concerns important to each of us. The poems are organized into the following topics: Masculinity and Poetry Manhood, Men and Me Growing Up Fathers, Mothers and Family Relationships Love and Marriage Children Humanity: Our World, Our Future This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
