Crappies are the most popular freshwater game fish in America. There are several reasons they are the most favored. If you fish, and you prefer to eat fish, the crappie is king. Walleyes, salmon and trout are each good to eat, but none better than crappies. You can catch them throughout the year You can take them from most rivers and lakes around the country With good natural reproduction, they sustain healthy populations on their own They are a schooling fish, so if you get one, you can get several Limits on them are high enough to get a good meal every time you fish for them Last but not least, they are in the top three best eating freshwater fish you can get. In this book we will cover all you should know related to fishing for crappies. You will learn how to take full advantage of the time you have to go fishing. I am a bass fisherman much of the time, but when I want fish to eat, I go for crappies. If you wish to have fun and catch a great fish that give you a superb meal, you should learn the tips I have put together to help you catch more and bigger crappies. The best states for catching crappies are Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Illinois, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia and Florida. These are not the only states where they are, but these are the best states for crappies. I live in Minnesota where Crappies exist in most of our fishing lakes. Certain lakes are better than others. I will show you how to pick a good lake. I have...
