Ecclesiastes is a hard book to digest if you are looking in the world for meaning to your life. King Solomon, the wisest man who ever lived, looked everywhere in the world for meaning, purpose for living, and came up empty. The only thing that makes sense of our existence is a relationship with God, the source of all real love. The Song of Solomon explores the beauty of the love between a husband and his wife. Together, they give us much food for thought as we endeavor to apply to our daily lives the love of God for us. Come with me as we explore the beauty of life lived in Christ.
