Excerpt: .that the appeal should be allowed, it is of little consequence what opinion I may entertain on the subject. I still entertain the opinion, however, that the conclusion at which I arrived in the Court below, was a correct one: although after having heard the arguments on the appeal, the reasons for it, which I then gave, are not entirely satisfactory to me.-, The question--and the only question before the Court--is whether the bill in this cause should be removed from the files: not whether it is demurrable or otherwise open to objection in point of form, and whether or not it must be. removed because the defendants, or some of them are officials of the Court of Equity, to whom the Court has entrusted the custody of the lunatic s estate, and the leave of the Court has not been obtained before filing...
