In response to an invitation from the management of the American Institute of Sacred Literature, it was transformed into a lecture, and, by request of the local Board in Boston, was delivered last month as one in a series of weekly addresses by different clergymen which is still in progress in the hall of the Young Men s Christian Association. The adverse criticisms which it elicited on this occasion were so sharp, and appeared in so many religious journals East and West, that justice to all seemed to require that it should be printed exactly as it was spoken.
