Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Land Question: A Lecture Given at the Oxford Reform Club, November 26, 1884 Mr. Fyffe, who was very heartily received, said - The subject on which I am going to address you this evening is a somewhat technical one. It is necessary to go into details which may cause some strain on your attention but if we are really to understand the land question, if we are to arrive at projects of reform which are practical and not speculative above all, if we are to make out such a case that people who are not inclined to agree with us will confess that there is something in what we say, - then it is a matter of necessity to go into details, and to make ourselves see things, not as the politician or the man of letters sees them, but as the farmer, or the labourer, or the small tradesman sees them, or, I may add, as the emigrant sees them, when he leaves his native village, where, in all its solitude, he finds that there is no room and no career for himself.
