The pastors of the churches in town have been invited by me to visit the Prison, for the purpose of imparting religious instruction to the prisoners, and occasionally they visit the Prison. I make it a special duty to advise all my prisoners, upon their discharge, to conduct soberly and honestly, and in almost all cases receive a promise from them that they will. We have no daily religious services in the Prison. It would afford me great pleasure to answer this question in the affirmative; but our Prison is so small there is no convenience for such services. There is no work performed in the Prison, of course, as we have but 5 F six rooms used for the confinement of prisoners, the Prison being one of the smallest, I believe, in the commonwealth. I am, dear sir, yours respectfully, John Ackerman. barnstable, May 14, 1851. Dear Sir, -- Yours of the 10th was received. In answer, I would say, we have no regular religious instruction, but the different clergymen in the town visit the Prison occasionally, and give such advice and instruction as they think proper. The prisoners have the Bible and other books to read. We have no Sabbath school, for the reason that we have but a few commitments, and those for a short time. The Prison is often entirely empty. As to work, such as are sent to the House of Correction 1 furnish with such work as they are...
