By R Austin Freeman

Magic Lamp Press, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Much like the classic Sherlock Holmes stories, forensic practitioner Dr. Thorndyke's exploits are told by his companion Christopher Jervis. This mystery involves two cases that Thorndyke and Jervis get involved with - one a man who is apparently being poisoned, and another who is already dead, but one of his heirs wants to contest the Will. Both cases seem impossible to Jervis, but not to his mentor, Dr. Thorndyke, who sees clues where none seem to exist. While reading this book you may think you know how it ends, but you will be wrong, because the way that Thorndyke wraps things up will come to you as an unexpected surprise.
