

The Long March to National Freedom, Popular Self Governance and African Self Becoming in Uganda/ Nile Afrika: 2017: THE PROMISE, TASKS AND PROSPECTS (Paperback)

By Dr Obyara David Anyoti

Alawi Books, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Popular Democratic Alternative for Uganda/ Nile Afrika The deliberations, discussions, interrogations, argumentations and theorization of the long march undertaken by the compatriots of the Society are here presented in their fundamentals. This record and publication is attentive to the historical perspective of the political, social and economic development of Uganda/ Nile Afrika, as a specific component of the geostrategic riparian polities of the Nile River valley lands. The deliberations of the Society, show the determination of Nile Afrikan person to face up to the complex facts of contemporary times - in which imperialism and its motor, primitive capital accumulation, in Afrika and the sad 3rd World - is fronted by the ruthless spoliatory activities of multinational capital and finance interests. The obligation to forge a popular way out of, and ways forward and upwards from this adversity by the Nile Afrika person - which is liberation from the slavery of modern ravenous multi nationality capital and finance, inevitably comes to the fore. This critical search for a way forward by protagonists of social, political and national liberatory processes in Nile Afrika,...
