

Galia s Dad Is in a Wheelchair (French Edition) (Paperback)

By James English

Texas Christian University Press,U.S., United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Translation. Language: French . Brand New Book. Galia is a young girl from Port-au-Prince, Haiti, who likes to ride her bike, dance, and spend time with her father, Gerald, who has muscular dystrophy and has been in a wheelchair since he was a young boy. Despite his disability, Gerald received a master s degree from Harvard University, served as President Michel Martelly s Secretary of State with the disability portfolio, and enjoys many of the same activities with his daughter as other dads. During his five years in public office, Secretary Gerald Oriol Jr. recognized his country s critical shortage of children s literature, particularly related to disability, and encouraged his friend and adviser James English to create a children s book for Haiti, which has an estimated one million persons with disabilities, a number that increased significantly following the 2010 earthquake. Galia s Dad Is in a Wheelchair aims to counter negative stereotypes and stigmas surrounding disability and is believed to be the only children s book on the subject in Haiti available in Creole, French, and English. The book s positive messages, which promote disability awareness and close...
