Syllabification is an important aid to learning, but the use of diacritical marks is negative in effect. 7. The use of words in sentences is important as emphasizing the practical utility of spelling and as giving the child opportunities for practice. 8. Definitions have less direct value and should be used sparingly. 9. If necessary, special exercises should be provided for definite training in the use of the dictionary. 10. In general, visual presentation is superior to mere auditory presentation. 11. The important exercises in visual presentation are: writing the words singly or in logical groups on the board before the children; picking out the familiar, unfamiliar, and difficult parts of words; emphasizing the unfamiliar and difficult parts; and associating these parts with similar parts of other words. 12. The loss in transfer is...

Here is the finest ebook i have got read until now. It really is simplistic but excitement within the 50 percent in the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
