

An Evening at the Theater (Paperback)

By Volterra

Skrycoft Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Marjorie s Intentions A brief verse drama that is more joyous and less comic than one in reading or performance may want. A veritable tragedy. The author toyed with titling it Crass Oppression in Quebec, but chose this more telling title. The Triumphant Defeat Final of the Corsican A wholly self-contained play from the other. The place is Waterloo, the play is brief, and the characters with speaking lines are all women, to rebound against the thoughts of the centuries, and the play is of the examining class. Then a friendly intermission, followed by three brief plays (Jehovah may be God, so he has to be correct, but MacDonald did review Kurosawa s Fortress). A total of five, making it a novel evening at the theater.
