Ought not Elijah to go back to these people? Need he feel afraid? Why not? That is such a precious text, Fear thou not; for I am with thee. We can rub out the first three letters of discouraged, and put in their place en--e (encouraged). There was special work to be done. Hazael was to be anointed king of Syria, and Jehu king of Israel; and, best of all, God was going to give Elijah, as his servant, a man who would be such a true friend to him, and then would be prophet after Elijah. His name was almost the same. Watch while I write it below. Instead of j there is s, and the h comes before the a instead of after--ELIJAH. LISHA. I am sure you will wish to hear about Elisha. Elijah returned to his own land. He need not be afraid now, for God had said, Fear not, etc. As he came near his old home, he saw in the field a young man and his servants plowing with twelve yoke of oxen. This was Elisha, whom God had chosen to be prophet. Elijah put his own mantle upon the young man s shoulders. Then Elisha knew he was to follow this teacher and wait upon him. Elisha asked to go to say good-by to his father and mother. He made a feast for his friends, and then went off...
