As they gazed, Thackeray gave utterance in a tremulous, gentle, and rapid voice to what all were feeling, in the word CALVARY! The friends walked on in silence, and then turned to other things. All that evening he was very gentle and serious, speaking, as he seldom did, of divine things, --of death, of sin, of eternity, of salvation, expressing his simple faith in God and in his Saviour. Thackeray was found dead in his bed on Christmas morning, and he probably died without pain. His mother and his daughters were sleeping under the same roof when he passed away alone. Dickens told me that, looking on him as he lay in his coffin, he wondered that the...
