Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Dorina: The Lady of the Great Changes by Romanian writer George Colpit, translated into English by Adriana Craciun, is an action-and-adventure novel, full of surprises and a deep sense of humor. Here is a short excerpt: I told you are stupid. You disappoint me, she says rummaging in her bag. The boss assistant checks the ice, pours into glasses, until Dominic tells him: Can you leave us alone, Sir? We can do your job. Thanks for your kindness, here s 500,000 lei, take it and disappear until we call you. Wait, Dorina says, give one hundred to the security guards too, to leave us alone ? Then, the Countess stretches her legs on the table, in American style, and takes out of her bag a small ebony pipe. Its hollow part is pearly. She also takes out a dose of Dutch tobacco Amphora and another of Mary Jane, the dream girl, her original nickname for marijuana. She stuffs the tobacco into the pipe hole, lights it, inhales hastily several times, and, trembling, sprinkles the hallucinogenic powder over the burning tobacco. She S...
