CHATEAU HIGGINSON: SOCIAL LIFE IN BOSTON S BACK BAY, 1870-1920 (HARDBACK)

Fonthill Media LLC, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. `Chateau Higginson is a vivid and absorbing account of one man s efforts to construct a building that would create a new way for Bostonians-and Americans-to live. Not only does Henry Lee Higginson (best known for founding the Boston Symphony Orchestra) and his housing gamble come to life, but a whole social class, indeed, all of nineteenth-century urban America, spread themselves before us in the narrative. Perspectives abound. Anecdotes enrich. Details, statistics, and little-known facts amaze. And it is written with elegance, confidence, grace, and wit. `A must-read for any lover of Boston history, any student of American urban history. -William Martin, New York Times bestselling author of Back Bay and The Lincoln Letter.
