Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. When it comes to military transitions books, veterans are given a firehose of instructions. How to dress, how to write a resume, how to give an interview, blah, blah, blah. This information overload, can overwhelm military members to the point of inaction. About Face provides quick tips that cut through the BS, so you can take action immediately. Once you've finished reading these badass tips, you'll be able to identify common pitfalls that most military members make, and change course before it's too late. Not only that, but you'll navigate the unknown jungles of the corporate sector with confidence and ease. In the end, you'll regain control of your career and get the job you deserve. Whether you're active duty planning to get out, a veteran who's already transitioned, or a supervisor who wishes to assist your troops, About Face will give you the tools you need to make the right decisions. Furthermore, family members will benefit from this book by identifying what is expected out of their military spouse, and assisting them with this major life event. So go ahead and give it a shot. It's only 25-ish pages long (an hour's investment of reading time) and will save you years of anguish down the road.
