

In Silent Requiem (Paperback)

By Melissa a Bond

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It was bound to happen. The human attempt to exercise authority over vampires was fated to fail. Had humans learned nothing from the consequences of one race dominating another? The uprising of every breed of vampire brought governments to their knees, and left a path of destruction across every nation with cities buried under the dead. David and Melissa Grayson awake from a long slumber to the restlessness growing along their beloved picturesque English countryside. The revolt had spread to their estate nestled in the Cotswolds, the once quiet beauty rising with the smoke from the villages burning on the horizon. The family is forced to turn their home into a prison. Their time is limited, proven when they must slaughter their own horses to feed the humans they provided shelter, and to satiate their own dying thirst. The family is betrayed when one of the humans they protected flees to the village, bringing a careless mob with his return. The family escapes to watch their Camelot burn, setting them on a journey that will try their resolve to...
