Epic Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.San Francisco has a new iconic private detective for the times, a complex character you will come to care deeply about. His name s Francesco Ferrari. A former Franciscan seminarian-turned-shamus, he drives a Ferrari California T sports car, packs a .357 magnum and operates out of a flat in the historic Buena Vista Cafe on the city s northern waterfront. And he covers only those cases affecting the city he loves-his namesake City of Saint Francis. That s just the start of a complicated case involving the city s dark underworld of fancy brothels, hookers, dives, residential hotels--and even the past hangouts of Beatnik poets--as Ferrari scours North Beach in search of something even more sinister: the reason why some secret software could aid and abet a nefarious terrorist plot. With the informant as the living pawn in a deadly shell game, Ferrari s pitted against...
